

Guidance for completion of FATCA Documentation for Canadian Entities (Including Trusts)

- The purpose of this document is to assist Canadian entities to determine their FATCA entity type in accordance with the Canadian Intergovernmental Agreement (“IGA”) and to provide the applicable documentation required. Do not continue if this is not a Canadian entity.
- A Canadian entity must determine:
 - Whether it is a Canadian Financial Institution. Refer to definition on page 3.
 - If it is not a Canadian Financial Institution, by definition it is a Non-Financial Foreign Entity (NFFE) and must determine whether it is an Active NFFE or Passive NFFE.
 - Whether the entity is a Flow-through entity or acting as an intermediary for US Tax Purposes

Part A – Determination of Entity Type and Classification

Step 1. Determination of whether entity is a Canadian Financial Institution
Canadian Financial Institution	See definition of ‘Canadian Financial Institution’ on page 3. Go to Part B if entity meets definition.
Step 2. Determination of whether entity is an Active NFFE or Passive NFFE
Active NFFE	Refer to the Active NFFE categories on Page 4 to determine if this classification is applicable. Go to Step 3 if entity meets definition. Additional definitions for ‘Excepted NFFE’ as described in relevant U.S. Treasury Regulations are provided in Appendix A.
Passive NFFE	A Passive NFFE means any NFFE that is NOT <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • an Active NFFE or • a Withholding Foreign Partnership or Withholding Foreign Trust pursuant to relevant U.S. Treasury Regulations Go to Step 3 if entity meets definition.
Step 3. Determination of whether entity is a Flow-through entity or acting as an Intermediary for US Tax Purposes
Flow-through entity or an entity acting as an intermediary for the account (other than a Canadian Financial Institution)	Examples of Flow-through entities are: Simple Trust, Grantor Trust, Partnership, Examples of entities acting as an intermediary: Qualified Intermediary or Non Qualified Intermediary Go to Part B for documentation guidelines if entity meets definition.
NOT a flow-through entity or an entity acting as an intermediary for the account	Examples of non flow-through entities are: Corporations, Complex Trusts Go to Part B for documentation guidelines if entity meets definition.

- b. a cooperative credit society, a savings and credit union, or a caisse populaire regulated by a provincial Act;
- c. an association regulated by the Cooperative Credit Associations Act;
- d. a central cooperative credit society, as defined in section 2 of the Cooperative Credit Associations Act, or a credit union central or a federation of credit unions or caisses populaires that is regulated by a provincial Act other than one enacted by the legislature of Quebec;
- e. a financial services cooperative regulated by An Act respecting financial services cooperatives, R.S.Q., c. C-67.3, or An Act respecting the Mouvement Desjardins, S.Q. 2000, c. 77;
- f. a life company or a foreign life company to which the Insurance Companies Act applies or a life insurance company regulated by a provincial Act;
- g. a company to which the Trust and Loan Companies Act applies;
- h. a trust company regulated by a provincial Act;
- i. a loan company regulated by a provincial Act;
- j. an entity authorized under provincial legislation to engage in the business of dealing in securities or any other financial instruments, or to provide portfolio management, investment advising, fund administration, or fund management, services;
- k. an entity that is represented or promoted to the public as a collective investment vehicle, mutual fund, exchange traded fund, private equity fund, hedge fund, venture capital fund, leveraged buyout fund, or similar investment vehicle that is established to invest or trade in financial assets and that is managed by an entity referred to in paragraph (j);
- l. an entity that is a clearing house or clearing agency; or
- m. a department or an agent of Her Majesty in right of Canada or of a province that is engaged in the business of accepting deposit liabilities.

Canadian Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) Certification Form - Active NFFE

The certifications below form an integral part of the attached Form W-8BEN-E / W-8IMY (as applicable).

This certification has been provided by (entity name) _____ in order for RBC¹ to meet its due diligence requirements as a Registered Deemed Compliant FFI under the Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) between the United States and Canada.

I certify that the entity as identified in Part I of the attached Form W-8BEN-E OR W-8IMY is a Canadian entity that is not a Canadian Financial Institution pursuant to the IGA between the United States and Canada and is certifying its status as an Active NFFE pursuant to the IGA between the United States and Canada that meets one of the categories of Active NFFE indicated below.

Check the ONE category that applies to the Active NFFE (only check one box):

- Less than 50 percent of the NFFE's gross income for the preceding calendar year or other appropriate reporting period is passive income and less than 50 percent of the assets held by the NFFE during the preceding calendar year or other appropriate reporting period are assets that produce or are held for the production of passive income.
- The stock of the NFFE is regularly traded on an established securities market or the NFFE is a Related Entity of an Entity the stock of which is regularly traded on an established securities market.
- The NFFE is the Canadian government, a political subdivision of such government (which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes a province, territory, county, or municipality), or a public body performing a function of such government or a political subdivision thereof, an international organization, the Bank of Canada, or an Entity wholly owned by one or more of the foregoing.
- Substantially all of the activities of the NFFE consist of holding (in whole or in part) the outstanding stock of, or providing financing and services to, one or more subsidiaries that engage in trades or businesses other than the business of a Financial Institution, except that an NFFE shall not qualify for this status if the NFFE functions (or holds itself out) as an investment fund, such as a private equity fund, venture capital fund, leveraged buyout fund or any investment vehicle whose purpose is to acquire or fund companies and then hold interests in those companies as capital assets for investment purposes.
- The NFFE is not yet operating a business and has no prior operating history, but is investing capital into assets with the intent to operate a business other than that of a Financial Institution, provided that the NFFE shall not qualify for this exception after the date that is 24 months after the date of the initial organization of the NFFE.
- The NFFE was not a Financial Institution in the past five years, and is in the process of liquidating its assets or is reorganizing with the intent to continue or recommence operations in a business other than that of a Financial Institution.
- The NFFE primarily engages in financing and hedging transactions with, or for, Related Entities that are not Financial Institutions, and does not provide financing or hedging services to any Entity that is not a Related Entity, provided that the group of any such Related Entities is primarily engaged in a business other than that of a Financial Institution.
- The NFFE is an "excepted NFFE" (see Appendix A for definition) as described in relevant U.S. Treasury Regulations.
- The NFFE meets all of the following requirements:
 - 1) It is established and operated in its jurisdiction of residence exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, artistic, cultural, athletic, or educational purposes; or it is established and operated in its jurisdiction of residence and it is a professional organization, business league, chamber of commerce, labor organization, agricultural or horticultural organization, civic league or an organization operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare;
 - 2) It is exempt from income tax in its jurisdiction of residence;
 - 3) It has no shareholders or members who have a proprietary or beneficial interest in its income or assets;
 - 4) The applicable laws of the NFFE's jurisdiction of residence or the NFFE's formation documents do not permit any income or assets of the NFFE to be distributed to, or applied for the benefit of, a private person or non-charitable Entity other than pursuant to the conduct of the NFFE's charitable activities, or as payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered, or as payment representing the fair market value of property which the NFFE has purchased; and
 - 5) The applicable laws of the NFFE's jurisdiction of residence or the NFFE's formation documents require that, upon the NFFE's liquidation or dissolution, all of its assets be distributed to a governmental entity or other non-profit organization, or escheat to the government of the NFFE's jurisdiction of residence or any political subdivision thereof.
