Successor Holder Election (Only a spouse or common-law partner may be designated as a successor holder)

If I have not elected to have a successor holder, I hereby revoke all previous beneficiary designations made in respect of the Account, including any such designation made in my will, and I designate the person identified above as the Account beneficiary entitled to receive all amounts payable under the Account upon my death.

If the person identified above predeceases me, or dies at the same time as me, or in circumstances rendering it impossible to determine which of us died first, then I designate the person(s) identified on the second page as the beneficiary(s) of my Account to receive their Percentage of Entitlement (as indicated on the second page) of the proceeds of the Account on my death.

In certain provinces or territories, a beneficiary designation, or any revocation thereof, can only be made by will. In some cases, the rights of my spouse or partner as may be defined under applicable provincial law may override any such beneficiary designation. Also, a beneficiary designation will not automatically change as a result of a future relationship or relationship breakdown; it may be necessary to designate a new beneficiary for this purpose.

I am solely responsible for ensuring that this beneficiary designation is valid under the laws of Canada, its provinces or territories and that this designation is changed when appropriate. If I am domiciled in Canada when I die, I acknowledge that this beneficiary designation will be governed by the laws of my province or territory of domicile at the time of my death. If I am not domiciled in Canada at the time of my death, then the laws of the province or territory where I was domiciled at the time of execution of this form will apply. Otherwise, the laws of Ontario will apply.

I declare that any property passing to a beneficiary from the Account, the value of such property, and any and all income or capital gain or other benefit arising from such property, shall remain the exclusive property of a beneficiary and shall be excluded from a beneficiary's net family property or community of property or the value of a beneficiary's assets for the purposes of division of property on a beneficiary's separation, divorce, annulment or death as contemplated by any statute dealing with matrimonial or family property in any jurisdiction to the extent allowed by law.

If no Percentage of Entitlement is stated above, or the Percentages of Entitlement do not add up to 100%, I direct that the proceeds of my Account be divided equally among the surviving beneficiaries or paid to the surviving beneficiary on my death, as the case may be. If any person identified as a contingent beneficiary predeceases me, I direct that their Percentage of Entitlement (as indicated above) be divided equally among the surviving beneficiaries or paid to the surviving beneficiary on my death, as the case may be. For greater certainty, the share of a deceased beneficiary will go in equal portions to the surviving beneficiary(ies). If none of the person(s) identified above survive me, I direct that the proceeds of my Account be paid to my estate on my death.
